INFINITE OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH

Dr. Shalini Srivastava
Assistant Dean - Research and Publications

We believe in a balance of theoretical input aligned with practical input. The pedagogy adopted at our campuses is based on a two-way learning process. Experiential based learning, simulations, case studies, role plays and the like not only make the students understand the concepts but it also helps them in aligning the same with corporate needs. There is continuous brainstorming in the sessions which further helps the students to gain confidence and improve their communication skills.

"Learn from industry tailored programs."

The courses have been developed after a lot of brainstorming with industry experts. After being vetted by alumni, senior academicians and the corporate, these are then structured in such a manner that the students get a glimpse of the corporate world. The academicians align the courses with the real life cases of the industry and the students get an opportunity to deliberate on the same.

LEARNING THE SKILLS TO LEARN

Himanshu Misra
Associate Dean
Student Affairs

Our rigorous and continuous training through pedagogical tools like Case Analysis, Role Plays, Business Simulation etc., ensures that they know how to approach a problem, how to logically define and structure the same, how to move towards a solution, how to successfully execute the plan and how to ensure that they reach the desired goals. We teach, so that they can inculcate a habit of learning continuously.

FOCUS ON ALL ROUND DEVELOPMENT

Dr. Romi Sainy
Assistant Dean
Academics

The rigorous, varied, and innovative curriculum is experienced by each student. If we take a look at the number of hours devoted under each category, the intensity of the PGDM program is self-evident. On an average each student would have had the chiseling experience by faculty team as facilitators and mentors, and dedicated placement training, apart from the exposure to industry through live projects and guest sessions, winter projects and industry mentoring. Opportunities for collaboration are incomparable. Overall emphasis in two years is given to increase the practical and business acumen of the students.

ROUTE TO MANAGEMENT EXCELLENCE

Prashant Gupta
Professor
Operations Management

The Institute's sole focus is on providing quality management education. It strives to change lives of students by inculcating life-skills and providing them opportunities and assistance to achieve their goals. This campus is live wire with activities like "Life After 6", Personalized Mentoring, Individual Development Plans (IDPs), Workshops, Training aligned with co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. It has outlined Industry Connect, 24x7 Learning Environment, Blending of Formal and Non-Formal Learning, and Global Exposure as its Four Pillars.

FROM ACADEMIC SEEKER TO A PROFESSIONAL

Dr. Abhijit Nair
Associate Professor - Business Communications

Today's corporate houses seek graduates who are work-ready as well as equipped with applied academic orientation. From the orientation program itself the student's journey is one of learning, imbibing hard skills, and getting ahead with soft skills. The incorporation of a marketing module that is industry-centric involves doing a project with the business verticals.

This has molded students from academic point seekers to result oriented professionals. Students amalgamate skills that would not be limited to fighting odds, managing deadlines, live projects and many more. Coupled with this is the enthusiasm in meeting industry personnel, networking with alumni, listening to subject matter experts, getting coached through Individual Development Plans and being part of a thriving community of strivers.

Jaipuria being a student centric institution promotes a lively fellowship between the juniors and the seniors. And this makes campus life worthwhile.

BE INSPIRED TO IMPACT

Jaipurians are groomed in a challenging environment, every day. You will be pushed to think out-of-the-box and demonstrate critical thinking and innovation. Innovation also forms the backbone of the teaching-learning process itself. You will benefit from not only new and updated courses but also use new technology platforms for effective learning.

TECH YOUR LEARNING FORWARD

LEAP

Learn, Experiment, Adapt, Progress is an online E-learning module on basics of management. It is an introductory program that skills you with fundamentals of management and also certifies on successful completion of each module. This online program starts before commencement of classroom sessions.

Moodle

It is an open source for collaborative learning; students can access all the course material, case assignments through Moodle. All the quizzes & assignments are done by Moodle. Students use EXCEL Minor for business analytics, solver, analysis Toolpack & SPSS software for data analysis and research.

MOOCs

Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) aims at unlimited participation and open access via internet. MOOCs provide interactive user forums to support community interactions among students & professors. Professional certification from MOOCs is an integral part of academic curriculum.

Lecture Capture

This is a Lecture Capture Software which helps in better learning through videos. Students can watch classroom recordings - anytime; anywhere in the campus. Use tools for easy revision, asking questions and interacting with peers. In Jaipuria, students from any campus can watch from other three campuses, which helps in uncampus learning.

ENHANCING LEARNING THROUGH TECHNOLOGY

Teaching involves tools of information technology. For this the lectures delivered by faculty members are captured through software. Post the delivery of the lecture, the faculty member publishes the lecture which the students enrolled in the course can view at a later point of time. Apart from this, the usage of moodle is in full swing at all four campuses. The reading materials can be shared, the quizzes can be taken, discussions are done through discussion forums and attendance is taken through Moodle. Case discussions, role plays and usage of management games enhance the learning experience. Each faculty member is assigned 8-10 mentees so that their progress can be closely monitored.
