CEI MENTORING SESSION

orgd. by Center for Entrepreneurship and Incubation

Jaipuria, Noida organized a mentoring session on 20th Jan 2020 for the students to motivate and prepare them for walking through the tough journey of entrepreneurship. An independent writer and consultant, Ms. Shalini Dagar was the esteemed guest and speaker for the session.

Ms. Shalini warmly addressed the audience before beginning the session and introduced herself to the students. She is currently working with money control and her journey as an entrepreneur has not been a smooth or easy one but is surely full of lessons.

Along with sharing some insights about entrepreneurial life and the business world, Ms. Shalini Dagar also enlightened the audience with some valuable tips that one should always follow in their lives. According to her, habits make a huge difference in one's life and to have a habit of eating well and to not forget about health while working hard for our goals is a golden rule for a happy life.

At the end of this interactive and encouraging session, students asked questions related to their startup ideas and all the queries were cleared efficiently by the guest.

CERVICAL CANCER AWARENESS SESSION

orgd. by CSR Committee

Every 7 minutes, one Indian woman dies due to Cervical Cancer. With the vision to change this statistic, a Cervical Cancer awareness session was organized on 22nd Jan, 2020 by Jaipuria Noida in collaboration with CAPED i.e. Cancer Awareness, Prevention and Early Detection Trust.

Ms. Madhu Yadav, Relationship manager CAPED, was the speaker for the session and she meritoriously enlightened the audience with the fact that in last 5 years CAPED has reached over a million people and helped rural women overcome their fears and get a chance to get checkups and diagnosis done for Cervical cancer.

She shared how Cervical Cancer is caused by HPV(Human Papilloma Virus) but is 100% preventable if diagnosed at right time and proper vaccinations are taken on time. Audience also got to know various symptoms and preventive measures of Cervical cancer during the session and were given an opportunity to volunteer themselves for different work areas like Social media, events and software development in CAPED.

JAIPURIA ANNUAL BOOK FAIR-2020

orgd. by Library Resource Centre

There is no friend as loyal as a book. To emphasize the importance of reading books and provide an opportunity to the students to buy decent books and novels, Jaipuria Noida organized the 9th edition of “Jaipuria Annual Book Fair 2020” on 22nd January 2020, under the guidance and supervision of Mr. Jitender Sharma, Sr. Librarian & Co-editor- JIJMR and fellow library team members.

The event commenced with a ribbon-cutting ceremony by the Director of the institute, Dr. D.N. Pandey in presence of all faculty members, staff and exhibitors. The event saw tremendous footfall from various faculty members as well as students. As the day progressed, many faculty and students not only purchased but also recommended certain management books from various renowned publishers such as Wiley, Siemens, Cambridge, HBS, Michigan University Press, Emerald, Pearson, Cengage, McGraw Hill, Orient, Wolters & Kluwers and many others, to be kept in the library. A stall of stationery items and children's books was an added attraction of the fair. It was an enriching experience for both faculty members as well as students to have a look through thousands of latest books and they actively participated in the annual book exhibition.

MAJOR HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

LEADERSHIP TALK SERIES

orgd. by CMC

As the students prepare themselves to enter into the corporate world, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida organized its debut event, “Leadership Talk Series” under the supervision of Ms. Kanchan Rana, Head CMC Jaipuria, Noida on 25th January 2020. The esteemed guest for the session Ms. Ruchira Garg, Director Head HR-Employee Resource Centre, Adobe India, graced the event.

The interactive session begun with a brief introduction of the guest followed by felicitation of a green certificate by Dr. Pratibha Wasan, Dean Academics. The host of the event, Ms. Samridhi Jain initiated the conversation by asking questions prepared by the students of First year.

Ms. Ruchira was kind enough to answer them and shared the empirical need for students today, to always try something new. She elaborated on the importance of additional certifications and courses with the emerging changes in technology that will prove to be the differentiating factor for the students.

As the event proceeded, Ms. Ruchira responded to questions related to career opportunities available for fresh management graduates given there is a cut throat competition in the market. She also gave advise on how to build a career and develop it in the long run.

The students really enjoyed the fire side chat format of the Leadership Talk Series. Few of the students also asked questions at the end of the session.

The session concluded with Ms. Supriya Massey from the CMC department presenting a memento to the guest as a token of appreciation and gratitude.

The event was definitely an eye opener for the budding managers of Jaipuria, Noida.

Thoughts of a Jaipurian:

You only get one life. And it's totally your choice whether you decide to take the steering wheel in your own hands or let other's opinion drive.
