LEADERSHIP MEET 2019

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and be more, you are a leader”

– John Quincy Adams

On 4th December 2019, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Noida organized a Leadership Meet for the Student Excellence Council 2019-20 at Nature Resort Valley on the outskirts of Gurugram. The event was focused on the motivation and development of the SEC'19 so that they continue to excel throughout their life.

The event started with the Academics President, Mr. Nitin Goyal, introducing the guests and welcoming the SEC'19. The Dean Academics, Dr. Pratibha Wasan then delivered a speech on how learnings from mistakes are an integral part of life for any leader. She focused on how networking playing a major role in the success and that a people's leader is often a more successful leader than a process-oriented leader but one should maintain a balance between the two to reach the heights.

Dr. D. N. Pandey, Director of Jaipuria Noida then shared his thoughts on some qualities which every leader must possess. He emphasized how a leader should be Energetic, how he/she should Energize his/her teammates, how the leader should always develop skills to keep an edge over others and that without execution, no leader can stay a leader forever. He called this the 4E's of a Leader.

Later that afternoon, Dean Students Affairs, Dr. Nidhi Singh delivered an inspiring speech on Focus and its importance in leadership. She asserted on the fact that no task can be completed without focus in life and that good leaders need to have the focus to implement their thoughts and reach the goals they target with the next morning followed with adventure sports activities.

The Meet was enchanted with the presence of Mr. Maneesh Pandey, a senior News Professional from News X. He has worked with India Today and Times Now and has also received many awards, accolades, and several renowned Scholarships worldwide.

The evening for SEC members was more than memorable with the presence of Ms. Nishie Agarwal, a corporate trainer and an experienced professional. The interaction with Ms. Agarwal was refreshing and full of energy. Team Building games and Self Motivating games made the SEC realize how being selfless is the right key to succeeding

Later in the evening, SEC members enjoyed their time by dancing their hearts out in the DJ night and then shared stories near the Bon Fire. The cold weather and clear night sky only added beauty to a wonderful day for SEC members with their colleagues.

The whole SEC was more than thankful to Ms. Shefali Sharma, the entire event organizer & coordinator, without whom the event wouldn't have seen a successful completion.
