1. Course Overview

The foundation of a healthy personality, based on the science of happiness, lies in how an individual manages his and others emotions, resulting into positive interpersonal relationships. Self-awareness is the stepping stone to excel in personal and professional life. Myriads emotions when monitored and channelized in the right direction enables an individual to develop resilient, empathetic and happy personality. Individuals as well as organizations need to foster trusting and collaborative culture that is more likely to have a highly satisfied, engaged and more productive and innovative workforce, with greater employee loyalty and retention.

This course delves into emotional and social competencies that sustain positive relationships at work. It highlights the foundational and related skills of empathy and "emotional intelligence" also known as EQ, which refers to the skills of identifying and regulating our own feelings, tuning into the feelings of others and understanding their perspectives, and using this knowledge to guide individuals towards constructive social interactions and promotes physical, psychological and emotional well-being.

Core Objectives:

Emotional Intelligence course is offered as a one and half credit compulsory core course (10 sessions/15 hours) in trimester III. The sessions would have a flavor of workshop.

2. Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs): At the end of the course, the students will be able to-

CLO1: Comprehend the framework of Emotional Intelligence

CLO2: Apply dimensions of EI to real life situations

3. Mapping of CLOs with Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) / Competency Goals

8. Time budgeting in course planning:

Please note that while assigning activities and planning teaching schedules following table may be of help. The weightage of items in the table is prescriptive and may vary according to course requirement. Yet it is indicative of how student time per course can be budgeted:

| Activity | Description | Time Budgeted |
|--|---|------------------|
| Classes | Two sessions per week across four weeks | 15 hours |
| Reading | Prescribed readings, text | 5 hours |
| Preparation of Quizzes/ class activity | Reading | 5 hours |
| Emotional diary cum log | Self-preparations | 5 hours |
| TOTAL | | 25 hours |

9. Academic Conduct

Students will be expected to maintain a daily log of their learning and make an action plan. The continuous evaluation tools would be implemented as per schedule and collected for evaluation. Students are encouraged to visit videos available on Impartus, you tube on TED talks, and readings available at websites like course era, etc.

Institute's Policy Statements

It is the responsibility of every student to be aware of the requirements for this course, and understand the specific details included in this document. It is emphasized that this course requires a significant commitment outside of formal class contact. The learning tasks in this course may include classes (lectures or seminars), required reading, the preparation of answers to set questions, exercises and problems, and self-study. In addition, students may be required to complete an assignment, test or examination.

LMS-Moodle/Impartus

LMS-Moodle/Impartus is used to host course resources for all courses. Students can download Lecture, additional reading materials, and tutorial notes to support class participation.

Late Submission

Assessment tasks submitted after the due date, without prior approval/arrangement, will be not be accepted. Requests for extension of time must be made with the faculty member concerned and based on Special Consideration guidelines on basis of cumulative reduction of marks per day as stated by course instructor.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is looked at as the presentation of the expressed thought or work of another person as though it is one's own without properly acknowledging that person.

Cases of plagiarism will be dealt with according to Plagiarism Policy of the institute. It is advisable that students should read Student Handbook for detailed guidelines. It is also advisable that students must not allow other students to copy their work and must take care to safeguard against this happening. In cases of copying, normally all students involved will be penalized equally; an exception will be if the student can demonstrate the work is their own and they took reasonable care to safeguard against copying.
