Dear Colleagues,

We are happy to share that the first faculty immersion programme in collaboration with the Royal Institute of Management (RIM), Bhutan, has been scheduled from 18-24th November 2018. The proposal and the tentative programme schedule are attached for your information.

Prof. Deepak Singh from Noida campus and Prof. Nidhi Vashishth from Jaipur campus have been nominated for this program. The objective of their visit is to meet with HOD's and faculty members at RIM Bhutan and explore collaborative opportunities with them. They will also deliver talk to postgraduate students and explore teaching/co-teaching opportunities and potential joint research projects with them.

We wish them all the best.

Thanks & Regards

Poonam

Faculty Immersion PROGRAM
at
Royal Institute of Management, Bhutan

The purpose of this program is to nominate faculty members from Jaipuria Institute of Management who will collaborate in teaching of a course at Royal Institute of Management, Bhutan. Two professors from each campus will be expected to travel to the partner institution for 10 to 15 days. In those days the faculty will teach a class, meet with other faculty members in order to discuss future potential projects, give an open lecture to the community, research projects, etc. Home institution are expected to cover the cost of the airfare of their own faculty. Accommodations and meals for visiting professors, will be covered by the host institute and vice versa.

Expected Results: Student's exposure to international faculty members, promote international curriculum, promote joint teaching programs, integrate activities with students from universities in different countries, open doors to possibilities for future collaborations

How it works:

- Home institutes will be responsible for reaching out to different faculties within their own institution to identify faculty members interested in participating
- Host institute will identify similar project proposals and will then notify the respective institutions
- The group of collaborating faculty members will design the syllabus and activities to be implemented during the visits
- A preliminary plan will be shared by the host institute
- Selected faculty members will participate in the short-term faculty exchange program

What is expected from participants?

Selected participants are expected to complete the following tasks as part of their participation in this program:

Before Visit:

- A potential match is introduced to faculty member. Both participants are expected to establish communication to have an initial conversation.
- After match is confirmed, faculty members are expected to establish communication to brainstorm and agree on the different activities planned for the visit. A planning activity document should be sent to both the institutes prior to the semester start.
- Participants/ Program Coordinator will coordinate with host institution about housing and meals during the visit

During Visit:

- Visiting faculty will teach or co-teach his/her colleague's classes
- Visiting faculty will offer a lecture on his/her expertise open to the community
- Visiting faculty will meet with various academic departments to discuss potential future projects
- Faculties are highly encouraged to participate in a community outreach activity

- An online/virtual activity will be organized by the professors to give students from both institutions the opportunity to interact. This activity could take place anytime during the visit

After Visit:

- Faculty is expected to share the evaluation survey
 - Each faculty will complete a final report by the end of the visit. This report will be shared and approved by the host institute and home institute
 - Each participating faculty will be awarded a certificate of completion under the Faculty Exchange Program
